7. VILLAGE ADMINISTRATOR'S REPORT

The engineer handling the municipal building ADA improvements has finished the project prints which will be delivered later this week. They'll then be submitted to a web site set up to solicit bids from potential contractors. Bid deadline is expected to be October 24. The project must be completed by August, 2019. The Village's share of project expense has been reduced to $299.

8. OLD BUSINESS

None.

9. NEW BUSINESS

Zizzo inquired about the status of Sheriff deputy patrols in the Village. The Mayor described the history of the Village's previous patrol agreement with the Sheriff's office and stated that there isn't one in effect currently. Herron stated that the Sheriff is responsible for law enforcement in the County and is required to respond when called. Zizzo expressed concern that crimes in the Village are on the rise and aren't being properly addressed. The Mayor stated that she would attempt to contact the Sheriff for a possible visit at the next meeting.
